Official Press Packet

Organization Overview

Brown Boiz Arttism is an exhibition organization dedicated to creating professional, affirming spaces for neurodivergent and youth artists. Founded to move communities from awareness to true acceptance, Brown Boiz Arttism centers artistic excellence, visibility, and dignity.

Through curated exhibitions, community partnerships, and intentional storytelling, Brown Boiz Arttism challenges traditional narratives surrounding disability and youth creativity, positioning artists as professionals rather than subjects of inspiration.

Upcoming Exhibition

Annual Autism Acceptance Art Exhibition

World Autism Acceptance Day: April 2

Location: Tike's Treats & Eats, 3030 Youree Dr. Shreveport, Louisiana

Exhibition Run: April 3 – May 1

Featured Artist: Robert Brownie

Robert Brownie is an 11-year-old autistic artist whose work explores identity, perception, and emotional expression through bold color, texture, and movement. As one of four brothers living with autism & ADHD, Robert uses art as a visual language to communicate lived experience beyond words.

His work has been praised for its authenticity, emotional clarity, and evolving technical range, positioning him as both a youth artist and a cultural voice within the broader conversation on neurodiversity.

Why This Exhibition Matters

Brown Boiz Arttism was created to move beyond awareness campaigns and toward lived acceptance. This exhibition offers the public an opportunity to engage directly with neurodivergent creativity in a professional gallery setting, reinforcing the idea that artistic merit and disability advocacy are not mutually exclusive.
